INTRODUCTION

N the belief that we are supplying the General Public with what they need, we offer them in these pages a full and concise record of the Royal Tour in India in a shape that "he who runs may read"

The illustrations, with their footlines, give all that is necessary to the business man to enable him to form a fairly accurate idea of this Historic Tour, its extent, and its importance

As a Table Album, it will afford all those who are not fully acquainted with the subject a pleasant half hour

With this impression on our minds we dedicate this Album to our friends—
THE GENERAL PUBLIC

BOMBAY

THEIR ROYAL HIGHNESSES ARRIVAL ON 9TH NOV 1905 THE ESCORT OF THE "RENOWN" STEAMING INTO BOMBAY HARBOUR

First are the Fox and the Despatch acting as advance cruisers—then the Renown—painted a gleaming white and flying His Royal Highness's flag as Rear Admiral at the fore—the Royal Standard at the main—the Union Jack at the bow and the White Ensign at the peak—the towering hulk of H.M.S. Terrible, also a dazzling white bringing up the rear. At eleven o'clock sharp a puff of smoke indicated that the firing of the Royal Salute had begun.
